After work with SweZam

Wednesday 21 September 2011, 6 pm

We are happy to invite all members of the Swedish-Zambian Association and other interested to an After Work with our guest

Rolf Shenton

Rolf was born in Zambia in 1963 by his Zambian father Barry who worked as warden of the Kafue National Park and his Swedish mother Marianne who worked as a nurse. Rolf grew up close to Zambia's nature and wild life and later got involved in politics. In 1991, he was elected member of parliament for MMD as a representative for Mkushi North, where he stayed for 6 years. In 2007, Rolf moved to Sweden with his wife and four children.

Rolf will talk about his own experiences and his vision on natural resources management in Zambia today

Come, join us for some food or a drink and listen to Rolf Shenton.
We meet at 6 pm at restaurant EthioStar –
at Saltmätargatan 19A (T-Rådmansgatan) in Stockholm.
