SWEZAM project Youth Rights Information Centre day (Youth Expo) is an event which has become an annual event in the calendar of the SWEZAM project. The event's objective is to accord the school clubs a platform to meet in one place (MEF) and perform activities within the three thematic areas. The event further gives an opportunity for the new members that join the school clubs (New grade 10s and grade 8s) to know what is stocked in the YRIC in terms of books and other related materials.

The opening and welcoming Remarks were done by the Moderators Annette Musonda and Petronellar Kapopo. When the Introductions were done, the SWEZAM School Clubs that were Present were;

Official opening of the event by MEF Director Dr. William Temu

The function was officially opened by the MEF director around 12:30Hrs. and in his address to the pupils (club members), Dr William Temu challenged them to look at their age and begin making plans of what they would like to become in the next 5 to 10 years from now, the jobs they would like to be doing and the kind of people they would like to see themselves becoming. This he did by asking any volunteers to stand up and say what they see themselves becoming. They were interesting answers given out by different pupils. One female club member from Mindolo High School stood up and confidently told the director and the listening audience that she sees herself becoming a Medical Doctor. As another female pupil from Chibote High School answered that she one day wants to own an orphanage centre as she wants to help and educate as many orphans as possible! After hearing two or more answers from the pupils, Dr. William Temu turned the pupils' attention to what he calls the 'good book' The bible and from there, he explained that there are a lot young people who did great things for God and served their purposes. They had the energy and the drive because they were young. He encouraged them to work hard in school and be responsible NOW! And not to wait till they reached his age to start working hard as it might be too late to achieve so much! When he finished addressing them the pupils clapped for him in appreciation for the words of wisdom he had presented to them!

The Director taken to the Exhibition Desk for a short briefing

After his opening remarks to the pupils, the director who was in the company of the Head of Conference, Research and Projects- Mrs June Muleye Kangwa and The Public Relations Officer- Mr Cosmas Phiri was ushered to the Exhibition desk where the Project had displayed what is found in the YRIC and the youth members (Andrew Mashaka Phiri, Lubona Kufumbwe and Namwinda Chipaila from Youth Three Club) were on the desk. They took time to explain to the director how the youths (SWEZAM members) access information in the three thematic areas (Gender, Human Rights and HIV/AIDS) through book borrowing, Research through the internet as the computers in the centre are all connected to the internet. They further informed him that the centre has other materials such as posters which are used as aids during the outreaches in schools and communities. And having a Television set, VCR and DVD players in the centre has made it easier for the SWEZAM Facilitators to carry out their work during club meetings with the help of watching various documentaries and thereafter hold discussions during club meetings. They ended with showing the director photos of the various activities SWEZAM has managed to undertake in recent past

Few Words from to the MEF Director from Mwila Mukuka – Ndeke High School SWEZAM Youth Club President

Having visited the exhibition desk the director was then taken back to the high table to hear the SWEZAM Youth Club President from Ndeke High School speak on behalf of all the clubs. In her address to the director, she thanked Mindolo Ecumenical for accepting to host the SWEZAM project within its premises. Because of this a lot of the youth members have benefited through the various trainings and workshops held. She said; “on behalf of all the SWEZZAM youth club leaders and members we are thankful to MEF and SWEZAM Sweden for the knowledge, education and exposure the project continues to render to us all. We hope the partnership continues for many youths to be a part of it.”

Songs from Guest Musicians – Buggy and Tony Breeze

The function had an entertainment slot as they saying goes; “All play and no play makes SWEZAM members dull members.” The members where entertained through music by youthful upcoming Zambian Musicians. They danced and sang along the songs they musicians were singing it was a blissful moment for them!

Motivational Talk about Education and life – Stashon Mbila –Youth Pastor

The motivation was given by the guest speaker who is a youth pastor, covered the following areas as he looked at what he was calling the Four Bs. and explained them in the following manner;

Break physiological barriers:

As young people we have tendencies of allowing the status quo to define us. We may have people that were leaders before and they might have failed to achieve some of the plans they had put in place. Due to that we physiologically begin accepting that we cannot achieve that. At times it could be in our families, based on backgrounds you see that non from your family has made it to university but only to the last grade of High school. Somehow you begin getting that belief that you will not make it to university. Yes they did not make it to university but you will as you are different and will work hard and as you build self belief in yourself. Break physiological barriers!!!

Break limiting rules:

There certain rules that limit us as young people in school, at Church and in the communities. Mostly these rules are setup by the older generations and they look down on our leadership potentials and say we are too young and must not be given the opportunity to take leadership positions and we should allow them to always decide for us what is best and what not.

These he called limiting rules. Thus Break limiting rules is what should be done!

Break all negative: In his conclusion, we spoke to the members about the power friends have on our lives and how we must avoid friends that are negative and bring with them negative influences that would hinders personal progress and success. As members of SWEZAM clubs and pupils you to carry with you a positive attitude and not a negative one! Break all negative!

Presentations from the Clubs

It was now time for the SWEZAM Youth Clubs to show case their talents through the following performances

- ✓ Drama
- ✓ Dances
- ✓ Poems
- ✓ Songs

All the seven High School clubs presented their performance through the above mentioned activities and they did this within the confines of the three thematic areas. It was the peck of the event as all clubs did their performance and interestingly enough most of their matrons joined the performances!
